

ARUSHA VOLUNTEERS – Extra Activities

Weekend Outings

During weekends can participate in shorter excursions like for example a visit to "Arusha National park", the closest national park to Arusha town. Arusha National Park is often overlooked by safari goers, despite offering the opportunity to explore a beguiling diversity of habitats within a few hours.

Tour Options

“Safari”, in Kiswahili, simply means "journey", but it has now become a synonym for an African wildlife adventure. Why not have an African wildlife adventure while you are in Tanzania?

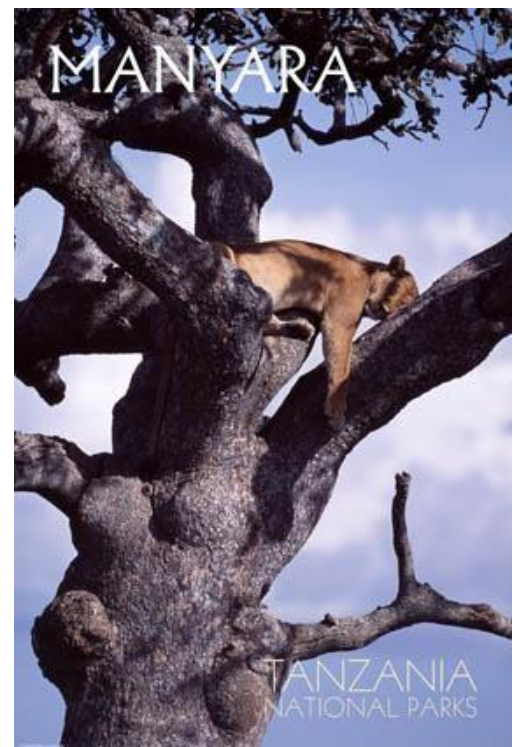

A 4 or 5-day camping safari to Lake Manyara, Ngorongoro and Serengeti National Park can be arranged for volunteers.

For more information, pictures and a video about the national parks in Tanzania see:

<http://www.tanzaniaparks.com/manyara.html>

- The safari starts and ends in Arusha.
- Transportation is in a land cruiser with maximum 4 other participants, so everyone has a window seat.
- You will camp in a spacious tent with beds and have access to toilet and shower, clean drinking water and get 3 meals a day.
- The safari staff includes a professional guide, cook and crew in charge of practical tasks and safety at the campsites.
- All vehicles have VHF radios.

If the start dates for the excursion do not fit with your volunteer work stay, the coordinator can arrange a break in your volunteer job, so you can return to work after the safari or trek.
